

Social Model of Recovery Housing

Quality Standards & Best Practices

Recovery Residences: 4 Levels

Level I	Peer Run
Level II	Peer Monitored
Level III	Staff Supervised
Level IV	Residential Treatment

Providing a Home

- Physical Building
- Yard
- Family Atmosphere

Is Your Program Recovery Oriented?

- Recovery Programs, Residences, & Centers
- Residents or Participants (not Patients)
- Individual Wellness Plan
- Promote Life Skills Development

Staff
&
Volunteers

Alumni

Peer Supporters

Recovery Volunteers

Community Volunteers

Licensed/Certified Staff

Peer Support

Recovery
Community

Models
Recovery

Barriers that Hinder
Recovery

Accountability

Residents are expected/encouraged to hold each other accountable

Residents have influence on their environment and their peers

Recovery Skill Building

Reach Out For Help-
Sponsor/Mentor

Weekend Social Activities-
Social Skills

Community Service- Giving back
for the Greater Good

House Meetings- Accountability &
Concerns

Employment- Productivity

Time/Money Management

Building a Support System

Treatment Providers

Criminal Justice System

Counseling Agencies

Homes & Neighborhoods

Recovery Community

Building a Greater Community

Employment

Churches

Organizations

Community Service

Civic Pride

Social Model Helps

Individuals Replace Addiction
with Recovery

Healthy People, Places, and Things

Community & Accountability

Homes & Neighborhoods

Relationships with Friends &
Family

Get Connected

- Family
- Recovery Community
- Civic Involvement/ Civic Pride

Social Model of Recovery Housings Leads to:

DECREASE
SUBSTANCE USE

DECREASE
INCARCERATION
RATES

INCREASE IN INCOME

INCREASED
FAMILY & SOCIAL FUNCTIONING

IMPROVES
PSYCHOLOGICAL &
EMOTIONAL WELL-BEING